The news will be received with deep regret in the Colony, for the Lo Cheung Shiu..... deceased officer in his quiet unoctentations way had endeared himself to a large circle of friends in civil and military life. A few weeks ago Colonel Elsdale, having completed his term of service, left for England ria America. Major-General Gascoigno learning that he had fallen ill at San Francisco, telegraphed for news of his condition, and received the roply that Colonel Elsdale the Bechanaland Expedition under Sir Charles Warren in 1884-5 in command of the Balloon detachment. He entered the army as a Lieutenant on January 15, 1864, was promoted Captain in October 1877, Major January 1884, Lieut.-Colonel in Janmary 1891, and Colonel in 1895. On several occasions during the absence of the General Commanding from the Colony, Colonel Elsdale was appointed the Officer Commanding the Forces.

The Theatre. Considering the very unpleasant weather conditions prevailing hast night, the large audience that assembled at the Theatre Royal serves to indicate the great success that has been achieved by the Dallas Company in the production of the lively comedy, 'The Geisha.' The house was well filled in all its parts, and the audience was ever ready to show its appreciation of the many excellencies of the performance. It would be ducidedly unfair to criticises overely" several minor defects in the production considering the many adverse conditions a travelling company has to contend with. and this appeared to be the spirit which animated the audience. The performance serves to give a very good idea of the possibilities of such a piece in the hands of a fully-equipped company, and the audience left fully satisfied that a very enjoyable evening had been spent. EXPLAINED IN PIVE MINUTES. PROFESSOR ST. GEORGE MIVART. You have heard it said that the boy is father The December number of the Fortnightly Review contained a striking article by Mr St. George Minart, in which criticised in a very outspoken way some of the claims of the Church to which he belonged. The article was important mainly because of the personality of the writer. Mr St. George Mivart has long been-if the phrase may be pardoned—a trump card with Roman Catholic apologists. Whenover anyhody suggested that there was an incompatibility between Roman Catholicism and science, he was told to look at St. George Mivart, a man of science and a Roman Catholic. Nor was Mr Mivart only a silent example of the fusion of these alleged opposites. For years he has been busily writing to explain to the world how easy it is to reconcile the Catholic creed with scientific doctrines. It would, perhaps, have been better had he remained silent, for in his explanatory zeal he has overshot the mark. He lungs.
